EVENTS COMMITTEE
CANADA DAY celebrations will be Tuesday, July 1, 2025 at the gazebo next to the museum from 11:30 to 1:30. Roast your own hot dog and enjoy a drink for $4 with free birthday cake served at 1 p.m. along with fun activities for adults and kids.
Don't miss the fireworks show on Memorial Lake at dusk and please bring a lawn chair to these events.

SHELL LAKE HOMESTEADER HEYDAYS will be July 19 weekend.
New this year is Saturday night free, live entertainment with November Down performing at the gazebo thanks to Lake Country Co-op's generous sponsorship. We are emphasizing the 'homesteader' aspect in this fun-filled weekend and hope to see more folks dressed up in traditional outfits as well as horseback riders and vintage tractors and wagons in town. Don't miss the parade, music, food, beer gardens, car show, petting zoo, church service and so much more! Businesses and organizations need to submit their sponsorship applications by June 6 to be included in the brochure so don't delay! shelllakeevents2023@gmail

PLANT AND DECOR COMMITTEE
Our annual "Wagon Raffle" kicked off as usual on the May long weekend and is on display at the Shell Lake Market until Hey Days. Tickets are $2 each or 3 for $5 and can be purchased at the store. This year we are having 2 draws. Our first draw is for a wagon full of all kinds of goodies and our second draw is for a Wooden Bridge with step Yard Ornament. We want to give Prabh and his staff a big shout out for helping us by selling our raffle tickets. We greatly appreciate it - thanks guys!

Since the weather has been very cooperative, we got all of the flowers planted at the end of May. With regular sunshine, watering, dead head-

Deadline for 2025 Assessment Appeals is June 17- 4:00 pm.

Tax Notices will be completed and sent out shortly.

Garbage reminder that all compost must be in a compostible bag and not too heavy to be picked up(30lbs).
Thank you for your help keeping Jim's back healthy!!

Bears have been visiting our village. Please ensure that your garbage is not available for them to snack on. Be aware of your surroundings if you are using the walking trails!

The Big Garbage Bin and a metal bin are still available for your spring cleanup.

Contact the Village Office for arrangements.

The cleanup day was cancelled due to the air quality from the northern fires. We will try to reschedule in the near future. In the meantime you are welcome to help the Village look beautiful by picking up garbage in your area or while out for a walk.
Keep up the good work!

Due to the extreme dry conditions, the Village of Shell Lake fire ban is still in effective as of April 25, 2025.

All open-air fires and outdoor fires are banned including recreational burning barrels, fire pits and or fireworks.

This does not include cooking on a heating device which is fueled by propane or natural gas.

Please be advised that if you start a fire you will be responsible for all costs relating to extinguishing it including but not limited to the fire department charges and or provincial related costs.

BE SAFE!! Lets hope rain is in our forecast soon!!

The next Council meeting is June 17.
If you have an item for Council or would like to address Council, please call the office by Thursday to be added to the meeting agenda. Council meetings are open to the public.

Congratulations to all our students that have completed another school year!

Wishing everyone a safe and happy June!!

Mayor, Wendy Penner

THANK YOU

We want to thank everyone who donated plants came and exchanged or bought plants. Also to everyone who gave monetary donations Christine and Donna wish to thank the kind souls who made sure we were well fed and watered for the two days of May 27 and May 28. Your generosity is very much appreciated. Thank you.

This plant sale is held once a year.
All donations are for the library.
